

Meeting your US filing obligations in 6 steps:

Moody's Gartner
July 20, 2017

Are you a US citizen living abroad? Did you know that the US taxes on both citizenship and residency? If you're a US citizen, you are required to file yearly tax returns with the IRS – even if you don't live on US soil.

Understanding and complying with US tax law requirements can be daunting. Here's a useful infographic that will point you in the right direction.

Click here to enlarge the image below.

Need more help? Our dedicated team of US lawyers and Certified Public Accountants are here to assist with all of your US tax compliance needs.